

Terry Huntley
ABKC Judge

My name is Terry Huntley and I live in South Carolina. My life with the dogs started with the American Pit Bull Terrier in 1994 with ADBA registered dogs with conformation weight pulls in North Carolina. Over the years, I have attended ADBA, UKC, and ABKC sanctioned shows. As my knowledge grew, I began to move over to the bully breeds in 2006. Currently, I am active in the ABKC, AKC, UKC, & International conformation dog shows for the American bully, French bulldog, & English bulldog.

Throughout the years, I have extensively researched and studied the breed structure and history in order to produce sound quality dogs. My breeding program has produced several champions and grand champions. This includes the American Bully, & the French bulldog. I have also professionally handled for others and obtained championship titles on those as well.

In 2014, my passion and dedication to the American Bully Kennel Club paid off and I was proud to accept my title as a judge within the registry. Being a Judge, my main goal is to educate the community about the breed standards, structure, & to be a positive role model for others.

Outside of the ABKC, I am a devoted husband, father, & dog lover.
